RNC Warren County Memorial Airport

Aviation Moves Tennessee

Tennessee's aviation system has 76 public-use airports that support a wide range of activities, from commercial airline travel to private aircraft operations. Aviation contributes approximately 9% of Tennessee's gross domestic product (GDP) and generates an estimated $53.8 billion in total economic impact across the state. To better understand how these airports support Tennessee's economy, the Tennessee Department of Transportation (TDOT) Aeronautics Division conducted an updated Aviation Economic Impact Study.

About Warren County Memorial Airport

Serving the City of McMinnville and surrounding areas of Warren County in Middle Tennessee, Warren County Memorial Airport (RNC) provides general aviation access within a region characterized by manufacturing activity, small communities, and regional business operations. The airport functions as a local aviation facility that supports aviation services, business travel, and general aviation activity where air transportation complements surface travel.

Warren County Memorial Airport is a publicly owned, public-use general aviation airport featuring a 5,000-foot paved runway. The runway length supports a variety of general aviation aircraft, including business aircraft and aircraft requiring maintenance or specialized repair services, providing flexibility for both based and visiting users.

A focused set of aviation-related businesses operate directly on-airport. Pegasus Aircraft Repair maintains a presence providing aircraft maintenance and repair services that support safe and reliable general aviation operations. In addition, Aero-Dynamix operates on-field, conducting aviation-related manufacturing and repair activities that contribute to specialized aircraft services.
